Insiders and Outsiders
Christian Hospitality in a Polarized World

One of the dictionary definitions of the word polarize is “[to] divide or cause to divide into two sharply contrasting groups or sets of opinions or beliefs.” It then gives this example: “the cultural sphere has polarized into two competing ideological positions.”

What it doesn't say is also true: the polarization in our “cultural sphere” is angry. And it's present on every side. Progressives vs. conservatives. Believers vs. atheists. Minorities vs. dominant cultures. Fundamentalists vs. liberals. Immigrants vs. citizens. Vaxers vs. anti-vaxers. MSNBC vs. Fox News. Very different theological perspectives and approaches to members of the LGBTQ+ community. Us vs. them. Insiders vs. outsiders.

How is the disciple of Jesus to live in such a polarized world?

The answer may be as simple as it is hard: Jesus' disciple is to live hospitably. Hospitality—Christian hospitality—is the disciple's answer to a polarized world. Paul's directive, after all, is as comprehensive as it is brief: Practice hospitality. (Romans 12:13).

Are you willing to be as hospitable to others as God has been to you?

Church Life

With deep sadness we announce the following deaths:

Patricia J. Foster on December 25. She is survived by her husband Glenn Foster, her children Terri, James, Margaret, Ginger, Gary, and Gina, as well as 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The service will be held at Montecito Memorial Park on Friday, January 27, at noon, with viewing/visitation from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Steven E. Hodgkin on December 31. He is survived by his wife Sheila, children Alex, Savannah, Sophia, and Summer, parents Georgia Hodgkin and John E. Hodgkin, and siblings Kathryn Gledrange, Carolyn Bakland, Jon Hodgkin and Jaime Hodgkin. A service will be held on Sunday, February 5, at 1 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

John A. Siregar on December 25. He is survived by his wife Erna, daughters Sylvia, Tina, Joan, Ellen, and Joyce, five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and two sisters. A memorial service will be held on Sabbath, February 4, at 5 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

The floral arrangement today is presented in loving recognition of Ruth Cortez's 99th birthday which she celebrates today. With much love and gratitude from her children, Loida, Ren, and Nina.

Join us for Communion Sabbath today and celebrate with foot-washing and emblems at the 9 & 11:45 a.m. and Anthem services. Gluten-free communion bread is available in the deacon's room. Footwashing will be in the following rooms: families in Fellowship Hall, women in Room 1402, men in room 1406.

Please help us keep our sanctuary a welcoming space for everyone by disposing of trash in the waste bins as you leave worship.

Amazon Smile Program: If you shop on Amazon.com, you can list LLUC as your charity of choice by registering on AmazonSmile. Just follow the QR Code or sign up on lluc.info/amazonsmile, and a percentage of every qualified purchase will benefit our building program. List "Loma Linda University SDA Church" as your charity. To date, $2,500 has been contributed with 224 shoppers. Tell your friends and family to benefit a great cause.

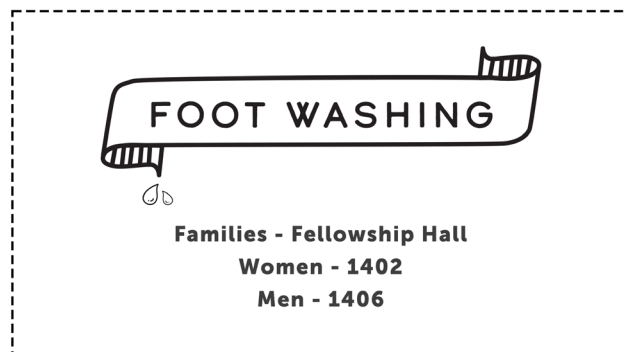

For a complete list of Sabbath School classes go to lluc.org/sabbath-school-groups.

DivorceCare: If you're needing support after a divorce whether it has been months or years, consider joining DivorceCare starting January 31 at 7 p.m., in room 1402. This is a 13-week support program. Registration is required at lluc.org.

UREACH says THANK YOU: Cindy Kaiser (RUSD counselor) would like to thank everyone who has participated in the CHRISTMAS CARE PACKAGE collection this year. Thanks to the generosity of our church members, Redlands Unified School District was able to support numerous families. Your support helped erase some of the stress for the families that usually arises during the holiday season.

Miclen LaiPang, violinist, winner of numerous international competitions and acclaimed by The New York Times as "a force to be reckoned with," will be in concert at the Campus Hill Seventh-day Adventist Church tonight at 7 p.m. Reserved seating tickets are available on iTickets.com or call (614)414-6899.

Assisted listening devices are available to check out from the deacon's room.

Baptism

Amber Miller wants to dedicate her life to God. Jesus Christ's example has shown her what is truly important: love. She plans to practice loving behavior, giving certainty to others that there is still good in the world. A Biomedical Sciences major at La Sierra University, Amber enjoys spending time with friends and family and teaching Tae Kwon Do.
