Each week your GriefShare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. The Zoom meetings begin Friday, January 21, at 7 p.m., and will run consecutively for 13 weeks. Register at lluc.org (Featured Events) and purchase the related workbook.

Read your Bible in 2022! The pastoral staff encourages you to make the decision to read your Bible through in 2022. Join those of us who do this as an annual discipline. Try something new—like reading the One Year Chronological Bible, New Living Translation. As a companion in reading, try Nelson's Compact Bible Handbook. Visit lluc.org to find out more about these resources or use the LLUC app to listen or read

Church office holiday hours: Offices will be closed Monday, January 17 until Tuesday, January 18, at 8 a.m.

Daily Prayer Line: Join every day, rain or shine, at 7 a.m., to pray together. You can be a silent prayer partner if you prefer. Simply join by calling; you will be richly blessed! Call (909)361-6220, ID-11125#.

The General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists invites the congregation to celebrate Religious Liberty Day today. Every year on the third Sabbath in January, Seventh-day Adventists around the world take time to remember the God-given gift of religious freedom. On Religious Liberty Sabbath, the world church prays for the many millions of men, women, and children who continue to suffer harassment, discrimination, and even imprisonment or physical harm because they choose faithfulness to God, no matter what. Religious Freedom Day has been officially proclaimed in an annual January statement by the president of the United States since 1993. For more information, contact the General Conference Department of Public Affairs and Religious Liberty: adventistliberty.org/religious-liberty-sabbath.
