Aimee Blair has loved God her whole life and grew up in the Adventist faith but now wants to make her faith her own and start a new life with God. She wants others to see His love through her and hopes to love others as He has loved her. Aimee is currently pursuing a master's degree at Loma Linda University to become a child life specialist and work in the hospital with children. She loves playing beach volleyball and spending time with friends.

The State of California requires masks to be worn in all indoor public settings, irrespective of vaccine status from December 15 to February 15. Although that requirement does not apply to religious gatherings, we continue to highly recommend that everyone wear masks in our services.

The apostle Paul speaks of the church as the body of Christ. It may be the best-known metaphor in all of Scripture. It speaks of the unity of the spiritual body made up of the disciples of Jesus. It reminds us that no person—no pastor, no administrator, no pope or potentate—is the head of the church. Only Jesus is the head of the church.

And it speaks to one other reality: every single member has a role to play in the life of the body. After all, in a healthy body, every member contributes to the entire body's well-being. Spiritual gifts is the name given to these special abilities each member possesses. And every member of the body of Christ has a spiritual gift or spiritual gift mix.

This series addresses five questions: What are spiritual gifts? Why are they necessary? What spiritual gifts does the Bible identify? What do I do with my spiritual gift(s)? And, How do I discover what spiritual gifts(s) I have?
