The apostle Paul speaks of the church as the body of Christ. It may be the best-known metaphor in all of Scripture. It speaks of the unity of the spiritual body made up of the disciples of Jesus. It reminds us that no person—no pastor, no administrator, no pope or potentate—is the head of the church. Only Jesus is the head of the church.

And it speaks to one other reality: every single member has a role to play in the life of the body. After all, in a healthy body, every member contributes to the entire body's well-being. Spiritual gifts is the name given to these special abilities each member possesses. And every member of the body of Christ has a spiritual gift or spiritual gift mix.

This series addresses five questions: What are spiritual gifts? Why are they necessary? What spiritual gifts does the Bible identify? What do I do with my spiritual gift(s)? And, How do I discover what spiritual gifts(s) I have?

Suffering and the World Religions: One of the most vivid aspects of human life on earth is the experience of suffering, and that suffering is often experienced in the healthcare context. Patients often seek and find meaning in suffering through their religions. The Loma Linda University Health William Johnsson Center for Understanding World Religions will present a Zoom panel event on February 19 from 3-5 p.m. Presentations will explore how each major world religion addresses the issue of suffering. LLU School of Religion Emeritus Professor Richard Rice, PhD, who has written the book Suffering and the Search for Meaning, will offer a response to the panel. Then the audience will be given opportunities for questions. Zoom the meeting at <https://llu.zoom.us/j/98561294180>. For more information, call (909)558-8434 or email religion@llu.edu.
