The apostle Paul speaks of the church as the body of Christ. It may be the best-known metaphor in all of Scripture. It speaks of the unity of the spiritual body made up of the disciples of Jesus. It reminds us that no person—no pastor, no administrator, no pope or potentate—is the head of the church. Only Jesus is the head of the church.

And it speaks to one other reality: every single member has a role to play in the life of the body. After all, in a healthy body, every member contributes to the entire body's well-being. Spiritual gifts is the name given to these special abilities each member possesses. And every member of the body of Christ has a spiritual gift or spiritual gift mix.

This series addresses five questions: What are spiritual gifts? Why are they necessary? What spiritual gifts does the Bible identify? What do I do with my spiritual gift(s)? And, How do I discover what spiritual gifts(s) I have?

The State of California requires masks to be worn in all indoor public settings, irrespective of vaccine status from December 15 to February 15. Although that requirement does not apply to religious gatherings, we continue to highly recommend that everyone wear masks in our services.

Church & Community Life

With deep sadness we announce the following deaths:

Rosa Montross on January 17. She is survived by her children—Dean and Dan Montross, Debbie Farrell, and Donna Roath—11 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. A memorial service will be held February 15 at 4:30 p.m. in the Family Ministries Bldg., room 1406.

Elaine Lawson Carter on January 29. She is survived by her son Richard Lawson, seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

The memorial service for Carleton Wallace has been moved to February 27 at 1 p.m. in the sanctuary.

The center floral arrangement is given in celebration of Erika Fellows' 7th birthday by her mom and dad. May God bless you today and each day. You are special and loved very much. Happy Birthday!

The north flower arrangement is given to honor the life of Elaine Lawson Carter, who would have reached 100 years on 2/22/22. With love from the Lawson, Herrick, Andersen, and Seifert families.

Daily Prayer Line: Join every day, rain or shine, at 7 a.m., to pray together. You can be a silent prayer partner if you prefer. Simply join by calling; you will be richly blessed! Call (909)361-6220, ID-11125#.

Suffering and the World Religions: One of the most vivid aspects of human life on earth is the experience of suffering, and that suffering is often experienced in the healthcare context. Patients often seek and find meaning in suffering through their religions. The LLU Health William Johnson Center for Understanding World Religions will present a Zoom panel event on February 19 from 3-5 p.m. Presentations will explore how each major world religion addresses the issue of suffering. LLU School of Religion Emeritus Professor Richard Rice, PhD, who has written the book Suffering and the Search for Meaning, will offer a response to the panel. Then the audience will be given opportunities for questions. Zoom the meeting at <https://llu.zoom.us/j/98561294180>. For more information, call (909)558-8434 or email religion@llu.edu.

Walla Walla University Alumni Events: WWU will be hosting several alumni events starting with the young alumni vespers and dinner Friday, February 11, at 6:30 p.m. at Loma Linda Academy; Church service at 10:45 a.m., February 12, at Yucaipa SDA Church; Complimentary alumni dinner with WWU update at 6:30 p.m., February 12, at Loma Linda Academy. For more information or to RSVP go to wallawalla.edu/alumni/events.

EXCELL needs you!!! The LLUC mentoring and tutoring program needs volunteers who are willing to give 1.5 hours once a week (Monday, Tuesday or Thursday) to impact the life of a student. Please visit lluc.org/forms to sign up or call the office at (909)796-8357.

Loma Linda University Nursing Dedication: School of Nursing junior class will be dedicated today at 4:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Professor Safiya Daley will speak and Tad Worku will provide special music. The dedication ceremony is a cherished tradition of nursing students committing their lives to the nursing profession and Christian service. You are invited to share your support and encouragement as current nursing faculty welcome the class with the lamp-lighting ceremony. Space is limited so watch online at lluc.org/live and share in the ceremony remotely. For further information, please e-mail nursing@llu.edu.
