Suffering and the World Religions: One of the most vivid aspects of human life on earth is the experience of suffering, and that suffering is often experienced in the healthcare context. Patients often seek and find meaning in suffering through their religions. The LLU Health William Johnsson Center for Understanding World Religions will present a Zoom panel event on February 19 from 3 to 5 p.m. Presentations will explore how each major world religion addresses the issue of suffering. LLU School of Religion Emeritus Professor Richard Rice, PhD, who has written the book Suffering and the Search for Meaning, will offer a response to the panel. Then the audience will be given opportunities for questions. Zoom the meeting at <https://llu.zoom.us/j/98561294180>. For more information, call (909)558-8434 or email religion@llu.edu.

EXCELL needs you!!! The LLUC mentoring and tutoring program needs volunteers who are willing to give 1.5 hours once a week (Monday, Tuesday or Thursday) to impact the life of a student. Please visit lluc.org/forms to sign up or call the office at (909)796-8357.
