Fruitful

The Holy Spirit gives gifts—spiritual gifts—to each disciple in the body of Christ. These gifts are for use in the service of the church and of the world. There are different kinds of gifts, and disciples receive the gifts in varying quantities. The gifts are vital for the growth and maturity of the church.

But the Holy Spirit also does something else of great importance: the Holy Spirit produces fruit in the lives of growing disciples. While spiritual gifts vary in both number and kind, the same fruit of the Spirit (see Galatians 5:22-23) is given to every disciple. There is one fruit—the New Testament reference is in the singular—with various ingredients. The fruit is made up of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Like the fruit in our backyards, the fruit of the Spirit takes time to grow to maturity. This process of growth requires attention, nurture, pruning, and surrender. The focus in this series will be both on what the fruit of the Spirit is and how we can nurture its growth in our lives.

Church & Community Life

With deep sadness we announce the death of Patricia Joan Wright on January 15. She is survived by her daughter Cathy (and Gordan) Wright Skeoch, son-in-law Dave Rosique, and three grandchildren.

The floral arrangements today are provided by the LLU School of Medicine Student Association and the dean's office in honor of the first year school of medicine students on the occasion of its dedication service last evening.

The 48th Annual Charles Weniger Awards will be presented today at 4:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Since its inception in 1974, 186 awardees have been honored in the equivalent of the Adventist "Oscar" awards. This year's awardees are LA Phil's violinist, Lyndon Taylor, who will perform, Adventist historian Gilbert Valentine, La Sierra professor Kendra Haloviak Valentine speaking on "The Irony of Orthodoxy," Harvard Professor and LLU board member David R. Williams, and Loma Linda University's own Gerald Winslow. Thirteen students from Adventist universities will be awarded $1,500 Weniger Fellows Student Scholarships.

Pathway to Health provides mega health clinics that serve the community. Free medical, dental, and other non-medical services are provided to anyone in the community. Volunteers from LLUC have participated and had great experiences in past years. This year the health clinic will take place in Indianapolis at the Lucas Oil Stadium from April 17 to 21. Volunteers are needed anytime between April 14 to 21. If you are interested in participating or getting more information about this ultimate human experience, plan to attend an informational meeting Sabbath, February 26 at 4:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. For more information, visit <https://www.pathwaytohealth.org/>.

Church office holiday hours: Offices will be closed Monday, February 21 until Tuesday, February 22, at 8 a.m.
