Understandable
You can understand the Bible!

Isn't understanding the Bible the quest of every committed Christ-follower? Wouldn't every disciple who follows Jesus desire to understand his Word? And most important: Doesn't Jesus want us to understand his Word?

Yet research shows that nearly a quarter of those who say they follow Jesus rarely or never read their Bibles! The same study found that only 14% of Christians read their Bibles daily, while 21% say they read it several times a week, and even less, 12%, say they read it monthly.

Most Christians would confess that Scripture is the primary means through which God speaks to us. If that is true, why are the numbers of those who read it so staggeringly low?

Maybe the core answer is simple: We tend to read what we understand and avoid what we don't. Could it be that simple? If so, wouldn't reading the Bible regularly rise dramatically if we just knew one thing: That the Bible is Understandable?

Baptism

Luke Joel Figueroa, a living testament to answered prayers, desires to publicly declare his gratitude for the precious gift of life through baptism. He was born prematurely at LLUCH with multiple complications and was given 12 hours to live. His parents turned to Jesus, who heard their prayer, healing him, redeeming and saving all of them. Now 13 and in the seventh grade, Luke enjoys learning, music, and sports.

Madison Michelle Ghosh plans to be baptized, showing her love and commitment to Jesus. She enjoyed baptismal classes with Pastor Mace and now wants to offer her love for God to others. An eighth-grader at LLA, Madison enjoys playing volleyball and spending time with friends and family.

Morgan Tyler Ghosh wants to show his public commitment to Jesus through baptism. Following baptismal lessons with Pastor Mace, he wants to demonstrate God's love to others. Tyler attends eighth-grade at Loma Linda Academy. He likes sports, especially baseball, and playing the saxophone as well as spending time with family and friends.
