GOD: Always. Never. Sometimes.

On a recent Sabbath morning, our community submitted questions—hard questions—we would like to ask of God. Hundreds of questions, representing various themes, were submitted. Some questions will only be answered in the light of eternity. But others not only can be answered, but have been answered—answered by the gospel. These questions have to do with how God views us.

Here is a sampling of such questions—drawn from all four worship services—largely unedited:

- How can I be sure of my salvation?
- Why don't you give me peace?
- What must I do so Jesus will resurrected me and take me to heaven?
- How to make sure my obeying laws does not earn my salvation?
- Are my sins forgiven? I have blatantly sinned. I have repented and by the grace of God turned my life around. I still wonder . . .
- How to have the assurance I'm forgiven?
- I am gay and love Jesus with all my heart. Will I make it to heaven?
- Am I doing what I need to make it to heaven? Sometimes I feel I am not enough . . .
- I read that you love me, but I don't feel it. Am I lovable?
- Why do I feel so fearful of your second coming, Lord? I want so much to be with you, but I have always felt unworthy despite your grace and love.
- Will I be able to go to Heaven?

Clearly, far too many of us live under the burden of God's condemnation. What might God say about this?

In fact, what does God always say, never say, and sometimes say—and do—about such questions? Examining such will provide answers to some of our deepest and most important questions.

Church & Community Life

With deep sadness we announce the death of Benjamin Y. Trimm March 30. He is survived by his wife Joan, children Eric Benjamin and Judith (Dave) Carelock, and two grandchildren. A memorial service will be held Sabbath, April 22 at 5 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Dementia Caregivers Support Group will not meet Sunday, April 9, but will resume the following Sunday, April 16, in room 102 from 1:30 to 3:30 pm.

Sonscreen Film Festival will be hosted by LLUC from April 13 to 15. Films will include an international docuseries featuring a woman from Loma Linda, a Friday night screening/Q&A with John Quinn, editor of The Chosen (multi episode series) and dozens of excellent student films. The Friday evening event is free. LLUC members can get a $25 weekend pass with promo code "LLUC" on sonscreen.com. Come support the arts and young filmmakers!

Easter Services: Join us for a very special Easter celebration today during the Sabbath morning worship services, which includes participating in the Lord's Supper at 9, 10, 11:30 and 11:45 a.m.

Easter Picnic: Join Children's Ministry for a special Easter Family Picnic in the park today! Bring your lunch and visit with other families at Citrus Trail Park in Loma Linda. Hope to see you there!

Spring Concert 2023: The Sanctuary Choir and Orchestra of Loma Linda University Church present "Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs" on Sabbath afternoon, May 13, at 5 p.m. in the Sanctuary. The concert music is inspired by Paul's exhortation to the saints to speak to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, making music in your hearts to the Lord and giving thanks to God the Father, for everything in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Join us as we lift our hearts and voices in prayer and song before the Lord!

The North American Division (NAD) is conducting a brief survey to gain insights into the attitudes and practices of SDA church members toward tithing. Your opinions on this topic are important. Discussing personal giving choices can be a sensitive topic: the information provided will remain confidential and anonymous. Go to lluc.org to complete the survey.
