When Conflict Snarls Your Relational Wires

Conflict is a fact of life. In fact, like it or not, ready or not, here it comes! And too often the result of conflict is tangled and snarled relational wires.

Family. Work colleagues. Dorm roommates. Siblings. Spouses. Neighbors. It doesn't really matter what relationships we consider (does it?!), conflict is complicated.

Could you use some help to unsnarl those relational wires?

Tangled addresses conflict, boundaries, and reconciliation—and does so from a biblical perspective. Jamie Stodola and Randy Roberts partner to address this important theme.

This series will be accompanied by a seminar entitled, "Untangling Our Relationships" with Bryan Cafferkey, MDiv, PhD, from the Counseling and Family Sciences faculty of Loma Linda University. Look elsewhere in this bulletin for further information.

Baptisms

Lucas Asher Edwards wants to be baptized to declare his love of Jesus to his community. He is the oldest of three siblings (Maxim and Isla), children of Neal and Heather Edwards. Lucas is active in football, soccer, and music.

Ariana Stratton decided to be baptized to strengthen her walk with God. Being on the LLUC Junior High leadership team led her to new friends and to the baptismal class where she made her decision for Christ.

Paige Nolfe knows Jesus has always spoken to her through prayer and knows he wants her to fully commit to him. Paige enjoys volleyball and basketball.

Brooklyn Payne has chosen baptism, publicly declaring her love and commitment to Jesus. She enjoys playing volleyball and hanging out with family and friends.
