Tangled

When Conflict Snarls Your Relational Wires

Conflict is a fact of life. In fact, like it or not, ready or not, here it comes! And too often the result of conflict is tangled and snarled relational wires.

Family. Work colleagues. Dorm roommates. Siblings. Spouses. Neighbors. It doesn't really matter what relationships we consider (does it?!), conflict is complicated.

Could you use some help to unsnarl those relational wires?

Tangled addresses conflict, boundaries, and reconciliation—and does so from a biblical perspective. Jamie Stodola and Randy Roberts partner to address this important theme.

This series will be accompanied by a seminar entitled, "Untangling Our Relationships" with Bryan Cafferkey, MDiv, PhD, from the Counseling and Family Sciences faculty of Loma Linda University.

Baptisms

Alejandro Corona, an eighth-grade homeschool student, has attended LLUC since he was four months old. After taking baptismal classes with Pastor Doug, Alejandro is choosing baptism to show his devotion to God. He lives with his parents, Luis and Annette Corona, and his two sisters, Aliana and Aisla Corona.

Lyla Camille Sue Oms enjoyed being part of LLUC Junior High Leadership with Pastor Doug, where she studied God's word with her friends. Today, she is eager to commit her life to God along side one of her besties, Kayleigh! She feels blessed to have a community of family and friends who mentor and guide her as they experience life together here on earth.

Kayleigh Leukert, a busy seventh-grader at Loma Linda Academy, desires to publicly commit her life to Christ. With a heart for Jesus, a zest for life, and a flair for the dramatic, Kayleigh delights in her family, her friends, and her beagles.

Child Dedication

Jonathan Kai Dolinsky was born October 22, 2023, the son of Ryan and Kristyn Dolinsky. Ryan works as a physical therapist at Loma Linda Outpatient Rehabilitation Center. Kristy is a writer and editor. As part of LLUC community for 10 years, they serve together at Advent HOPE Sabbath School. They desire to raise their son to know and follow God's purpose for his life.
