Baptisms

Jacob Razzouk wishes to dedicate the rest of his life to following the teachings of Jesus Christ. He will be graduating from the University of Utah this summer and is currently applying to medical school. He enjoys cycling and rock climbing.

Ninah Chan is getting baptized because she loves the Lord and he gives her happiness! She is a homeschooled 8th grader and enjoys spending time with her family, friends, and pets. She is passionate about music and has also been known to play and watch football.

Stephen Justus Rood wants to declare his love for God through baptism. He is going into the 9th grade at The Grove School. He enjoys drawing, reading, and playing games with friends.

Jianna Nations is choosing to be baptized because she feels that Jesus is drawing her to him. Jianna likes to paint, read, and ride her bike, but her favorite activity is spending time with her family and two dogs.

Bethafe Tulagan Rood is a convert to the Seventh-day Adventist Church on her baptism today.

Church Life

With deep sadness we announce the death of Helen Emori King on June 20. She is survived by her children—Bill and Debbie King, Brian and Cynthia King, Donna and Lyle Matthews, Debra King—eight grandchildren, and siblings—Grace Emori and Harvey Elder and David and Eileen Emori.

A memorial service for Brian McCorkle will be held Sunday, August 8 at 3 p.m. in the fellowship hall.

The flowers today are given in celebration of Jacob Razzouk's decision to accept Christ as his Savior and to commit his life to God's service. With much love, from Mom and Dad.

Current sermon series—Project 2:42: Social distancing, flattening curves, safer at home, face masks, and isolation have all become part of our language. We have mourned together, experienced zoom fatigue together, and learned how to innovate and inspire together. Now we emerge from a pandemic, bleary-eyed, full of expectation, realizing that the world will never be the same, so the pastors would like to invite you to participate with us in this dream we call Project 2:42 as we seek to craft a post-pandemic vision for Discipleship in this new sermon series from June 19 to July 31. The new normal begins now, tomorrow commences today.

I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked . . . along with Loma Linda University Church Senior Pastor Randy Roberts and Dr. Larry Geraty, President Emeritus, La Sierra University, and lifelong archeologist. Taste and feel the ebb and flow of today's culture as we immerse ourselves into the world of Jesus' life on earth in the holy land. Visit Bethlehem, place of Jesus' birth and the hometown of Moabite immigrant Ruth. Experience the Bible more fully in an exploration of Jordan and the area of the tribes of Israel, and Bethany beyond Jordan where John the Baptist lived and baptized. Log on to LLUC.org for a full itinerary, registration, and trip options. Tour date: September 9 to 23, 2021. Last day to register is July 5.

LLUC/UReach Quilters are meeting on Sunday June 27 in room 105, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. No experience is necessary. Please contact Diana Irizarry-Benson at (951)785-0850 to sign up. If you are unable to join us we invite you to participate by giving a donation to the quilting ministry at LLUC.org/giving or call our business office at (909)558-4186.
