There is increasing evidence that vaccinated individuals can spread the new variant even when they are asymptomatic. Because the number of cases is now beginning to impact our hospital systems, based on the guidance of medical professionals and the SECC, we strongly recommend that everyone wear a mask at indoor church gatherings regardless of vaccination status until further notice.

LLUC/UReach Quilters are meeting Sunday, August 22, in room 105, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., for knot tying the baby quilts. No experience is necessary, but a loving heart for NICU babies and a desire to share Jesus' love to the families makes this successful. If you are unable to join, you can donate to the quilting ministry at LLUC.org/giving or call the LLUC business office at (909)558-4186.

And mark your calendars—September 10 is our first meeting! We can't wait to make music with you!

The Nutrition Research Center is looking for participants to be part of a soy study that will be looking at the relationship between fermented soy and immunity and cognitive benefits. For more information, visit soystudy.org or call (909)558-8382.
