Church Life

With deep sadness we announce the death of Rosita “Rosie” Perez Tayaben on August 8. She is survived by her husband Roger, children Reginald and Katherine, and siblings Anita Perez, Reuel Perez, Eunice Perez-Ollom, Rebecca Perez-Abuel, and Elizabeth Perez-Ramos. A memorial/burial service will be held at Montecito Laurelwood Chapel on September 8 at 10:00 a.m. and will be live-streamed on Montecito Facebook.

June Hibbard died on August 13 after mightily fighting the good fight. She is survived by her husband Tom and daughter Dawn, and three grandbabies, Jax, Mallie, and Zoe. She will be greatly missed as a long-time valued deacon leader for the church she loved so much. Services will be private.

Friendship Cup Parade: LLUC will be hosting another Friendship Cup Parade today at 6 p.m., in the Centennial building parking lot, just off Campus Street in Loma Linda. The one held in May was great fun! This event offers a way for members to see each other in person while keeping everyone safe. The pastors and their families will serve refreshments as you drive by in your cars. Make some signs, maybe decorate up your mobile float; load up the family and honk your horns for the 2nd Friendship Cup Parade!

Outdoor Gospel Sing and New Building Tour: As part of LLUC’s Camp Meeting series (our first corporate “in-person” event since the start of the pandemic), the “Outdoor Gospel Sing” will be held at the new Randall L. Roberts Amphitheater on August 29 at 7 p.m. This event will fully comply with outdoor safety guidelines as set by California and Southeastern California Conference. Individuals and family groups will have space to spread out and enjoy an evening of praising the Lord in sundown worship. Immediately following the concert, attendees will be able to tour the newly completed Family’s Ministry Building with a few understandable conditions. No food or drink will be allowed in the new building; bathrooms will be open for viewing only, and masks and distancing will be required.

Loma Linda Academy continues to adapt in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. LLA administration and staff understand the important role of Adventist education in our community, and we are determined to continue our ministry to families with the best practices for health and safety. Classes begin on August 24 via remote learning. LLA has applied for a state waiver to be allowed to provide on-campus instruction for grades TK- 6th. Parents will be notified promptly should the waiver be accepted. Visit www.lla.org/2020guide for more information about LLA’s plans for the coming school year. Contact Admissions at (909)796-0161, option 1.

LLA Roadrunner Golf Classic: Loma Linda Academy will hold its 21st-annual Roadrunner Golf Classic on Sunday, September 20, at the Morongo Golf Club at Tukwet Canyon. All proceeds directly benefit students through tuition aid. Register online at www.lla.org/golf or call (909)796-0161, ext. 3340.
