Heaven Cares

The Tender GOD of the Apocalypse

Revelation—Merely mention the book and conflicting emotions erupt. Delight! Distress. Courage! Cowardice. Hope! Horror. No other Bible book creates such responses. “Revelation?” Doesn’t that mean an unveiling? “The revelation of Jesus Christ?” Doesn’t that promise comfort and assurance? Yet, simply perusing the book creates more confusion than clarity, more fear than faith. Could it be that we have missed something—something compelling and profound? Could it be that lost in beasts and chaos, confusion and destruction, we have missed the tender God of the apocalypse? The God revealed in Jesus? Blow the dust off the book. Crack open its pages. Pray. And steel yourself to encounter . . . the wounded Lamb. Jesus. The One who cares about you!

The tender God of the apocalypse.

Church & Community Life

With deep sadness we announce the following deaths:

Jeffrey D. Cao on August 20. He is survived by wife Donna Carlson, sons Chris and Kurt, five grandchildren, and brother Kurt. A memorial service will be held Sunday, September 17 at 4 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

James (Jim) Carritte on August 28. He is survived by wife Debbie and daughter Maddie. A memorial service will be held Sabbath, September 9, at 3 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

Nancy Davidson, a decades-long member of the LLUC Sanctuary Choir, died on July 27. She is survived by her devoted Sabbath Lunch Bunch at University Church; LLUH colleagues; lifelong friends; and her nephew Paul Davidson, wife LeeAnn, and their children.

Isidore Bernard Hodge on August. 3. He is survived by children Neville, Jacqueline, Linda, and Tony, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A memorial service for Ron Numbers will be held today at 4 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

UKids Soccer League is open for registration. Practices will be Thursday evenings with games on Sundays from September 21 to October 29. Sign up on ukidsministry.com. Scholarships are available for any family in need of financial assistance.

Griefshare: LLUC will present a 13-week virtual grief-support group beginning Friday evening, September 15, via Zoom. Whether you have lost a loved one recently or years ago, you are welcome. Weekly seminars are designed to help rebuild your life. Every session will feature a video seminar with time for personal discussion and prayer. Registration is required at lluc.org under "Featured Events."

UCARE invites you to attend a two-day seminar: "Grief, Grace, and Gratitude" September 22 to 23 at the Wong Kerlee Conference Center. Presenter Alicia Patterson, certified grief educator, will share effective tools to help people resolve the pain of grief. For details and registration, go to lluc.org.

Suicide prevention safeTALK, an internationally recognized program, will be presented on Sabbath, September 23, from 2 to 5 p.m. in room 1402. Learn four basic steps to recognize persons with thoughts of suicide and connect them with resources. Anyone who might want to help may join, minimum age, 15 years. Sack lunch will be provided for participants at 1:15 p.m. Space is limited; registration is required.

For a complete list of Sabbath Schools go to lluc.org/sabbath-school-groups.

EXCELL mentoring and tutoring program needs you for 1.5 hours per week. Sign up to volunteer Mondays, Tuesdays, or Thursdays and impact the life of a child in our community. Visit the information booth in the foyer for more information or to sign up.

34 years ago Pastor Doug Mace married his love, Susan Herber, in the Loma Linda University Church, now they are delighted to invite you to the wedding of their daughter Madeline to Gus Moretta in this very same church September 10, at 4 p.m. For their story visit maddieandgus.com.

CNXN Fair will be an unforgettable night that celebrates the essence of human connection. There will be live music, food, games, prizes, and deep conversation on Saturday, September 23, at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.
