The Lies That Define Us

What we believe, we become. Throughout Scripture, God highlights the incredible power of positive belief in shaping our lives. That's why he consistently urges his followers to believe that what he says is true.

Yet, what happens if the beliefs we hold are false? What if the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves are destructive to ourselves? In this series, we will confront the lies we tell ourselves so we can listen to the truth that Jesus speaks to us.

Church & Community Life

With deep sadness we announce the death of Linda C. Rhynus on August 7. She is survived by her mother Edith Rhynus; sisters RoLinda Luevano, Cynthia (Skip) Halladay; brother Roland (Sandra) Rhynus, Jr., and many nieces and nephews.

The floral arrangement is given by the deacon's ministry in honor of Ernie Zane. Ernie embodied the quiet service that is characteristic of deacons. We will miss his gentle smile and his faithful commitment to God's work.
