Forgotten

The Often-Overlooked Characters of Christmas

Do you ever feel Forgotten? Overlooked? Neglected? Like God is interested in others and is working elsewhere? Like others are important and you are insignificant? Like you could disappear and life would go on? Like, without you, the world would still be just fine?

If that describes you, then you may be interested in the often-overlooked characters of Christmas. A neglected man. A speechless priest. An aging prophet. A worshipping widow. They were overlooked at the time. Today, they're often simply forgotten. Yet, without them, the Christmas story would not be the same.

They serve as timeless reminders that God often works in quiet corners in unnoticed ways at surprising times in overlooked people.

And that's precisely where God may be most at work this Christmas.

In people like me, like you, in places like this, at times like now.

Together in Prayer

Family Ministry Building Program

Church and Community Life

A memorial service for Dale Isaef will be on Sunday, December 3, at 3 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

LLUC Pathfinders are partnering with UReach to collect new or gently used jackets and hygiene kits (new razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste, combs, deodorants) for the unhoused community. Pathfinders will be receiving donations in the Courtyard (near the Family Ministries Building) today from 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. For more information on how to get involved or donate, call the UReach office at (909)796-8357.

The LLUC Children's Choirs' Christmas play this year focuses on community outreach and service. On December 2 at 10:30 a.m., the children invite YOU to participate by bringing any of the following items: hats, jackets, gloves, socks, wrapped gifts for kids, school supplies, canned goods and pantry items. Collection will take place during the play.

Light of Love: A Christmas Musical of the Nativity: LLUC Media is pleased to present an original Christmas musical of the nativity titled Light of Love. Described as Princess Bride meets Disney, this family-friendly show encompasses the relatable humor and challenges of everyday life along with a heartfelt message of hope, acceptance, and love for the outsiders. Performances will be in the auditorium on December 16 at 7 p.m., December 17 at 2 and 7 p.m., and December 21 and 23 at 7 p.m. Go to lluc.org for more information on tickets and how to support this project and future projects!

The Giving Season is upon us! Your church leaders ask if you will prayerfully consider a special gift for our building program on Sabbath, December 16. We look forward to paying down a significant portion of the principal of our loan this year. Remember any amount over 2 million dollars at the end of the year is applied directly to the loan principal. Thank you for your continued faithfulness in giving.

Music Ministry is grateful for the support of the LLUC church community throughout the year. Season's Greetings offers an opportunity to express a special "Christmas appreciation" for the dedication and sharing of the God-given talents that Music Ministry volunteers and personnel bring to LLUC. With a gift of $50 or more, your name will be listed as a supporter of this vital ministry on a beautifully designed Season's Greeting page on the church website. Your gift of love is truly appreciated! Contribution deadline is December 16.

Rejoice: A Joyful Celebration of Christmas. Tim Zimmerman and The King's Brass will perform at the Calimesa SDA Church on Friday, December 15, at 7 p.m. and Saturday, December 16, at 4 p.m. For tickets, go to iTickets.com or call (800)965-9324.
