The Gift...

For Those on Whom God's Favor Rests

The heavenly chorus proclaimed the good news of Advent to the shepherds on the hills outside Bethlehem:

*Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,
"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." (Luke 2:13-14, NIV).*

This is the best of all good news! Yet the last line raises a question:
Upon exactly whom does God's favor rest?

As Luke recounts the story of Jesus, the answer to the question is stunning because throughout the ministry of Jesus, God's favor consistently rests upon the last people who ought to have expected to receive it.

Two thousand years later the news is still stunning! The identity of "those on whom his favor rests" is still astonishing because those who think they would never be the object of God's favor are about to receive the greatest Christmas of all: God's peace!

Church & Community Life

The floral arrangement today is presented in honor of the church media team for its outstanding work and in memory of our son Donnie who would have celebrated his birthday this month. We miss him daily and look forward to Resurrection Day. Art and Jan Kroetz

The giving season is upon us! Please prayerfully consider a special gift for our on-going Family Ministry Building program on Sabbath, December 17. We look forward to paying down a significant portion of the principal of our loan this year. Remember any amount over 2 million dollars collected throughout the year goes directly to the principal. Thank you for your continued faithfulness in giving. Your pastoral staff.

Divorce Care Leadership Interest: Volunteers are needed to direct the divorce care program and/or lead the groups. If you have interest in supporting this ministry, complete the online interest form at lluc.org.

The LLUC Children's Choirs will be presenting "An Out of the Box Christmas" on December 3 at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary. Invite your friends and family to join us as we discover how the essence of Christmas can still be captured, even when things don't go quite as planned!

Christmas Candlelight Concert: "The Gift of Heaven": Music Ministry invites you to the 2022 Christmas Candlelight Concert on Sabbath, December 10, at 4:00 and 6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Join the Sanctuary Choir, Orchestra, Brass, BellForza, Kimo Smith, guest soloists Raejin Lee, Charles Reid, and more, as together we celebrate "The Gift of Heaven." Join us as we sing favorite Christmas carols at this special concert. Tickets are available online at lluc.org.

Season's Greetings are expressed each year by members through a contribution of $25 to support the Music Ministry. Designate your contribution "Season's Greetings" and list your name exactly as you would like it to appear on the list. Contribution deadline is December 17.

Celebrating Hispanic women composers: LLUC is honored to present Spaniard piano virtuoso Marisa Blanes in a concert featuring works by women composers from Spain, Mexico, Argentina, Cuba, and Uruguay. The event on December 4, at 5 p.m., in the auditorium is free.

Messiah sing-along: Join the Sanctuary Choir, soloists, and chamber orchestra for this LLUC sing-along tradition on Sabbath, December 17, first and fourth services. Bring your own score or borrow one in the lobby. For more information, contact Brenda Mohr at sanctuarychoirluc@gmail.com.

Baptisms

Rebekah Rogers tried to run from God, but this past year, she realized that surrendering her all to Jesus is the only way to live. (Matthew 6:33) God has used her husband and three daughters to shape and mold her. Today she has chosen to be baptized to publicly acknowledge her dedication to Jesus.

Joshua Rogers heard the call of Lord and has chosen to answer it with his baptism today. He and his wife dedicate themselves to raising their three daughters, leading them to Christ. The family looks forward to studying Scripture and fellowshipping with their LLUC family to further God's kingdom, offering everything to his glory.

Leslie Alvarez is a clinical social worker for San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health and seeking her Master's in Social Work and drug and alcohol counseling certificate. She also loves to cook and serves for the Sabbath School Praxis breakfast ministry. She was baptized Friday night during the Praxis service.
