Fruitful

The Holy Spirit gives gifts—spiritual gifts—to each disciple in the body of Christ. These gifts are for use in the service of the church and of the world. There are different kinds of gifts, and disciples receive the gifts in varying quantities. The gifts are vital for the growth and maturity of the church.

But the Holy Spirit also does something else of great importance: the Holy Spirit produces fruit in the lives of growing disciples. While spiritual gifts vary in both number and kind, the same fruit of the Spirit (see Galatians 5:22-23) is given to every disciple. There is one fruit—the New Testament reference is in the singular—with various ingredients. The fruit is made up of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Like the fruit in our back yards, the fruit of the Spirit takes time to grow to maturity. This process of growth requires attention, nurture, pruning, and surrender. The focus in this series is both on what the fruit of the Spirit is and how we can nurture its growth in our lives.

Here Am I, Lord. Send Me! Make plans to attend the annual LLUC Prayer Conference May 5-7. Beginning at 8:30 a.m. on May 5, the National Day of Prayer, join us at the Good Samaritan Statue for prayer. The meetings on May 5 and 6 will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary. On Sabbath, May 7, join any of the three worship services, Sabbath School, and Vespers for a time of spiritual renewal, prayer, and worship.

The Annual Memorial Service will be held May 21 during both morning worship services. Our theme is "Forever in Our Hearts." Plan to attend this commemorative day of hope as we pray for and seek to comfort the families and friends of dearly beloved departed members.

Typhoid Mary is a play that tells the story of Mary Mallon, an Irish immigrant and asymptomatic carrier of typhoid fever, who infected many in the state of New York 100 years ago. This gripping account shows how faith is tested in the face of loss. This program is sponsored by the School of Religion Humanities program and will be held at the Damazo Amphitheater in the Centennial Complex on May 14 at 7:45 p.m and May 15 at 2 and 7:30 p.m. For more information email humanities@llu.edu.
